Resources for Teachers

Welcome back. I hope everyone's summer vacation was rejuvenating and just long enough. I'll keep this first edition of AY 2016-17 short.

And, finally:

Save the Date: Saturday, October 1, 2016 – Kansas City Japan Festival Teachers' Workshop
"Samurai in Motion" Professional Development Workshop or Class for K-14 Educators
Saturday, October 1, 2016
8:30 AM – 9:45 AM
Hudson Auditorium, Nerman Museum, Johnson County Community College

This year's workshop will center around what awesome athletes the samurai were. A fitting theme in this Olympic year. The expanded hands-on portion will give participants the chance to learn taiko drumming technique from KC's own Three Trails Taiko group and participate in an ensemble piece. New this year: Teachers who attend can opt to receive 1 graduate credit through Baker University. The $65 tuition will be reimbursed upon successful completion of the additional requirements.

The workshop is FREE but limited to 15 teachers with one student each. Registration is required. To register and receive more details, please RSVP to Randi Hacker rhacker@ku.edu and put "KCJF WORKSHOP" in the subject line.

Founded in 1959, the Center for East Asian Studies (CEAS) at the University of Kansas is the only East Asian resource center in the Great Plains region. Educational outreach is a key component of the Center's mission. You can find lesson plans and many other materials online at <http://ceas.ku.edu/educator-resources>. If you're a teacher who would like to add East Asia content to your lessons across all curriculum areas, sign up for Outreach Notes at <http://ceas.ku.edu/email-list>.
